Near Lunas is a village called La Tour sur Orb. In this little village is a camping which is called Camping Municipal la Tour sur Orb. The camping is located very close to the river where swimming is possible.

You need to bring a tent and camping stuff. The camping charges 2 euro's a day per person and 4 euro's a day for a place where there is room for four tents. It is a simple basic camping. The toilet groups and showers of the camping are in very good condition.

For participating in the open air workshops one needs a karate-gi and sporting shoes. The fee for the three days budo workshops is 40 euro per person.
